

Lecture on "UAE Society From Past to Present"

The College of Mass Communication organized a lecture on "UAE society from the past to the present" on Thursday, April 21 2016. Dr. Yousef Sharab shared the wealth of his knowledge as he is the first researcher to support community development efforts of management as well as decision support of the General Headquarters of Dubai Police.

This successful collaboration effort by the Faculty of Mass Communication of Al Falah University served to achieve the educational outcomes of the courses of study in the college and the university in general. It also proved essential in promoting cultural, psychological and social knowledge of the UAE.
