

AFU Mass Communication students visit TV Orient Training Center

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Falah University organized a visit for the students of College of Mass Communication to Orient TV and the Orient Center for Training and Media Development. The visit aims to develop communication skills, basic media skills and facing the camera that gives students the chance for a practical experience.

Orient Center for Training and Media Development welcomed AFU students and media experts working for the institution gave a lecture.

The visit included a tour for students in all the studio's facilities and production rooms, in addition to learning about the modern media devices and equipment used in every production. The students were also given the chance to be casted in front of the camera.

Categories:

AFU News

Student training